

Summer Reading Incoming Third Grade

Name

Date

Title

Author

Blank handwriting lines for practice.

Illustrator

Characters

Problem

Plot

Directions for recording books read:

1. Name – Write the name you are called in class and your last name using the correct punctuation.
2. Date – Write the month, day, and year the report is due using the correct punctuation.
3. Title – Write in the title of book making sure to underline the title and capitalize the appropriate words.
4. Author – Write the author’s name using first name first then middle name, and finally last name using the correct capitalization.
5. If an illustrator is listed insert their name in the same way as used for the author.
6. List the main characters in the story and tell a little about their part in the story.
7. A problem in a story is something that goes wrong; something that needs to be fixed, changed or figured out. The problem in the story is often caused by the main character. Briefly, explain the problem in the story.
8. The plot of a story are the attempts by the characters to fix, change or figure out the problem. Briefly list each attempt the characters make to resolve the problem.

Parent – Teacher Page

Check the appropriate box(es)

- Student selected a book from the grade level booklist provided by classroom teacher
- Student obtained prior approval from the teacher for any book not on the grade level booklist
- After reading this book parents and student discussed the book

Parent signature: _____

Date: _____

If student and/or parent is unable to sign any of the above statements, use the space below for any explanation and your plan to remedy this problem.
